

“Myself Essay”

Humans are the most superior creatures amid all the creatures in the entire universe. Being a part of this universe makes me feel small and minuscule in a world where there are millions of humans like myself. Although everyone is quite unique in their own way, I try my best to be humble, kind, and respectful of everybody I meet regardless of their age, gender, family background, nationality, or race. It is not an easy task to write about one's self because one may tend to either over-exaggerate or fail to give succinct descriptions and commendations where necessary. It is with this background that I introduce myself.
